

CATALPA

Cabernet Sauvignon 2021

ARGENTINA

Bodega Atamisque: Located in the prized region of Tupungato at the foothills of the Andes Mountains by John and Chantal Monceau in 2002. Produced with respect for the environment and using long-term sustainable processes are the foundation in the construction of Atamisque, such as designing the winery to be based on gravity flow winemaking to avoid the use of pumps and minimize wine stress and utilizing the local slate in the area as tiling for the roof of the buildings providing perfect insulation and temperature control year-round.

Tasting notes: Deep purple red color. Intense aromas of cherries, black currants, with subtle notes of black pepper and chocolate. In the mouth, it is round, smooth, full bodied and well-structured. Vibrant acidity and with firm silky mature tannins and lingering flavors of red fruits and cacao in the finish.

Winemaker: Philippe Caraguel

Appellation: Vistaflora, Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina

Grapes: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Soil: Alluvial soil with a rock foundation and top layers of sand.

Elevation: 3,937 ft

Vineyard practice: Sustainable farming, Double Guyot, drip irrigation.

Vine Age: 55 years Yield: 800 kg x hectare (713 Lbs x Acre)

Aging: 40% of the wine ages in new French oak barrels for 12 months.

Alc: 14% UPC: 8 12402 01022 4

Tupungato Region: This privileged wine region is regarded by most experts as the best region in the world to produce Malbec wines. Dry summers, harsh winters and a wide temperature range between day and night allow the vines to produce low yields of outstanding quality.
